Benthota

A Sri Lankan coastal city famous for golden beaches, Bentota is situated on the southern coastal tip of the Galle District of the Southern Province. The town is a popular tourist attraction. It is especially famous among the foreign tourists. The name comes from a mythical story which dates back to kings time saying a demon called Bem ruled this river (tota = river bank. Bentota hosts a handful of world proclaimed hotels. It is the hosting land for the famous Sri Lankan Jeweler Aida. Bentota also delivers an ancient art of healing called Ayurveda. Bentota is also famous for its production in Toddy. An alcoholic beverage made out of cocunut nectar. The city's population is estimated to be between 25,000-50,000.

Hikkaduwa

Hikkaduwa is a small town on the south coast of Sri Lanka. It is located in the Southern Province, about 20 km north-west of Galle. Hikkaduwa is famous for its beach and corals. Villages affected were Telwatta, Paraliya, Dodanduwa, Kahawa, Rathgama. The place is on the way from Colombo to Galle on the famous Galle road. It is primarily a tourist destination, and serves as a great beach with options to surf, snorkel and enjoy the sun.

Gall

Galle "Gaul", and in Sinhalese IPA: [ga:l:ə]) is a town situated on the southwestern tip of Sri Lanka, 119 km from Colombo. Galle was known as Gimhathiththa before the arrival of the Portuguese in the 16th century, when it was the main port on the island. Galle reached the height of its development in the 18th century, during the Dutch colonial period. The major river is Gin River Gin Ganga which starts from Gongala Kanda and passing villages such as Neluwa, Nagoda, Baddegama, Thelikada, Wakwella and kisses the sea at Ginthota. In Wakwella over the river there is Wakwella Bridge which is the longest bridge in Sri Lanka.

Weligama

Weligama is a fishing town in Matara district on the southern coast of Sri Lanka. The term Weligama literally means `Sandy Village' which refers to the area's sandy sweep bay. Situated at a distance of 143 km from Colombo, Weligama is a popular tourist destination and hosts several boutique hotels. It is most famous for its distinct stilt fishermen and an off shore islet known as Taprobane, where a dream house of French Count de Maunay was built.

Hambantota

Hambantota is a rural town in southeastern coastal area of Sri Lanka. It is also the capital of the Hambantota District in the Southern Province of Sri Lanka.

A boundless blue - where does it begin, or even end: the pool, beyond the sea or the sky. And don't the blues come in subtle hues... cerulean, turquoise, and azure. Points to ponder, as the sun glimmers off the ripples you make when you first dip your toes into the water, and raise a toast to life.

Lazy days lie in wait for you at Heritance Ahungalla, where time will seem to slip into infinity - much like the views that line the South Coast of Sri Lanka. Beach hotels on this spectacular shoreline are plenty, but you have found a one of a kind treasure. Welcome to true indulgence.

Heritance Ahungalle is Located on a prized expanse of sandy beach in Ahungalle 76 Km from Sri Lanka's capital Colombo, the Heritance Ahungalle Hotel is Sri Lanka's first ever 5 star beach resort. Heritance Ahungalle Hotel's Blissful privacy is provided by the thick coconut groves on two sides of the property and the watery depths of the Indian Ocean on the third.

Heritance Ahungalle is in a small fishing town of Ahungalle and its neighbour Ambalangoda both boast idyllic palm-fringed fine golden sand beaches lapped by warm, aquamarine waters.
